“ Tonya and Robert, While the loss of a loved one is never easy, it is most certainly the hardest when they are taken from us too soon. The loss of your precious son Zach just makes my heart ache for you both. I offer my sincere condolences and my deepest sympathy on the loss of Zach. I ask for God's blessings on you and your wonderful family. I ask that God wrap his loving arms around you and comfort you like never before. May you find the courage and strength to move forward. I want you both to know I have heard such wonderful stories about Zach from so many people. I have heard how he helped at Operation Christmas Child and how he always said Yes Ma'am and No Ma'am. Tonya and Robert, that tells me you raised him right and he was a fine young man. He is with our Heavenly Father now. He is not in pain. Thinking of you and praying for you. “ Tonya and Robert, I want you to know you and your family will be in my family's thoughts and prayers during this unfathomable time of your life. I want to share just a couple of verses from our Lord that have comforted me in the past in hopes they may also help you in any way during this time: Matthew 5:4: Blessed [are] they that mourn: for they shall be comforted. 2 Corinthians 1:3-4: 3 Blessed [be] God, even the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of mercies, and the God of all comfort; 4 Who comforteth us in all our tribulation, that we may be able to comfort them which are in any trouble, by the comfort wherewith we ourselves are comforted of God.

“ We are so sorry Miss Tonya and your entire family. We lost our 14 year old in a crash with 4 boys also. We know the feelings right now are tremendous and un-believable. At times, still like a dream. Zachary will need your hearts for the next 3 days very much. Stay strong and use your family and friends care and love. Try and use memories instead of explanation, it helps. We love you, take care.
