“ To all the family, please know I share in your sorrow. My mom and dad, Martha and Graham Miller, so loved her parents Zada and Ernie, and by extension young Duddie. When I met her many, many years ago, she simply exuded goodness and kindness, and while we were never really close given the residential distance, we tried to see one another when possible until her illness. She was, as you say, a truly good woman. She will be sorely missed.

“ Dear David,

Zada was A JOY TO KNOW in Zumba classes. I will remember her grace and beauty.

My last memory is of her in her elegant Scarves and white clothing at our dance Halloween party at the fitness center.

You and your family are in my prayers.

“ We will miss Zada at Haywood Arts Community Theatre. She and I struggled together to learn the music, the choreography and all of it. But we laughed and had fun, regardless. She was hilarious in rehearsals and everyone loved her. Her artistic sensibilities were conagious and her sense of humor always kept people on their toes. Until we meet again, Zada and I hear “Places!”, and see you there waiting....

“ We are so sorry for your loss! Zada was an amazing women. She had the most infectious laugh! So many great memories of her and her funny stories or listening to her talk about the love she had for her Heavenly Father. She was always a ray of light.

I grew up with this wonderful young Lady "Duttie" Phipps many years ago and she was the brightest and most creative personality to know. I spent many day with her and friends at her house in F. Lauderdale and always had the most fun times. Her parents were delightful and so very kind. Sending "Duttie" Heartfelt Love and Blessings and to that of her Family. GOD has received new Angel...
