

Zenaida Durr

January 21, 1944 - February 24, 2023

Zenaida I. Durr of Newnan, Georgia, died after a lengthy illness on February 24, 2023. She was born in Havana, Cuba, January 21, 1944. She is the daughter of Justo and Estelle Camacho, both deceased. She was 79 years of age. Zenaida is survived by her husband, Joseph also of Newnan, 2 daughters, Judith A-Cain (Kelly) of Olympia, Washington, and Janet Z. Bradley (William) and Grandson Joey also of Newnan. She has a surviving brother, Leo Camacho of Miramar, Florida. She is preceded in death by 2 brothers, Jose and Calixto Camacho. Zenaida is a retired banker and attended college in Kansas City, Missouri. She loved music and was a talented dancer. Zenaida and Joseph traveled extensively, nationally and internationally. Their travels took them as far West as Hawaii, and East to Saint Petersburg, Russia. She found friendships wherever she traveled. Her life story is far more rich than reflected by words, herein. Those of us who are saddened by her departure, too early it seems, but Our Father which art in Heaven had different plans for this Angel.

McKoon Funeral Home & Crematory (770) 253-4580.

Tribute Wall

Jl

“ It is with great sadness that I just learned of the passing of this wonderful lady. I will always treasure my memories with Señora Zenaida and her daughters. My condolences to her entire family, especially Judith and Janet. She was a great mother, friend, and one of the classiest women I ever met. We are all better for having known her. Jack Iturralde Shawnee, Kansas

Jack iturralde - October 11, 2024 at 07:15 AM

JU

“ My condolences to Janet Almasque Bradley and her son Joey Bradley regarding Zenaida, an amazing friend with a lot of charisma. She will be missed by us and by your entire family. She was a good, kind and smart lady. May she rest in peace.

Julieta - March 10, 2023 at 01:11 PM